

Curriculum Committee Meeting

MINUTES

October 27, 2020

7:30-9 PM via Zoom online video meeting

Members present: Scot Gibson, Julie Wood (co-chairs), David Shaner, Cara Alexander. Maureen Pendas, Amy Rotz, Taryn Beard, Kelly Shanks.

1. Scot called meeting to order at 7:30. New members, Kelly and Taryn were welcomed.
2. Review September minutes. MOTION to approve passed.
3. Syllabus reviews. The committee discussed each syllabus at length. Overall, positive feedback on all. Cara will provide the following feedback to instructors.
 - a. Child clinical applications. Needs intentional readings and titles inclusive of diversity and intersectionality, bibliography specific to potential topics, organize topics and CA presenters at first class.
 - b. Self-Psychology. Recommendations to reduce reading load.
 - c. Early middle phase. Good as is.
 - d. Development of PsyA thought. Clarify learning objectives.
 - e. HD Latency. Needs active verb learning objectives, titles and brief descriptions for each class, readings attending to diversity.
4. 2020 - 2021 Teaching assignments
 - a. Year 1, Spring – Ethics. Brainstorm ideas for instructors.
 - b. Year 1, Spring - New course title: Intersectionality, social context and the co creation of clinical experience. Kelly Shanks and Kathy Weissbourd. This course will run first, ethics will run second.
5. 2021-2022 planning discussions will begin next meeting.
 - a. Piyale asked to teach Aging in Winter rather than Fall. That can likely be accommodated.
 - b. Letter of interest for teaching will go out in January. Zan and Scot will make it by electronic survey format with a specific request that ALL faculty fill out and return. Additional items to check would be: No interest in teaching; Willing to teach anything; Willing to co-teach but don't want full responsibility for creating syllabus; No interest in teaching a full course, but willing to be substitute.
6. Kelly will take on course evaluations task for this committee.
7. Scot clarified LOA policy at CAAO with positive feedback.
8. Meeting adjourned at 9. Next Meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

Julie Wood
